Significantly reduced tibial tunnel widening compared to screw fixation

Significantly improved graft integration compared to screws and full tunnels

The FlipCutter III drill creates a 3.5 mm hole, allowing for a 6 mm to 12 mm minimally invasive socket

Significantly greater ultimate strength compared to standard full-tunnel techniques

Equivalent stability to BTB technique in athletes 24 years or younger

References

www.arthrex.com
© 2020 Arthrex, Inc. All rights reserved. DOC1-000332-en-US_A